Product description

"Galler House 2" is the spitting image of "Galler House"; the difference lies in the material.

The "Galler House," inspired by the Asterix universe, adds a playful and unique touch to any playground. This house stands about 55 cm high, with a step for easy access.

The design allows light to filter through the door and panels, creating a cozy space. Its uneven appearance from the side adds a fun look. The semi-enclosed design offers children a place to hide, hold meetings, or enjoy quiet moments.
